THE NETWORK OF LARGE EUROPEAN HOSPITALS:

HOW INNOVATION IN TECHNOLOGY,
IN MEDICAL PRACTICE AND IN ORGANIZATION
IMPROVES PATIENT CARE

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

CAREGGI UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

OCTOBER FLORENCE (ITALY)
13TH-14TH-15TH, 2016

AZIENDA OSPEDALIERO UNIVERSITARIA CAREGGI
AUDITORIUM CTO LARGO PALAGI I, FIRENZE

The medicine of the future will be ever more rapidly evolving due to the continually increasing interaction between the fields of expertise and competence regarding patient care. Furthermore, due to the new devices capable not only of enhancing clinical and surgical skills but also of improving healthcare services through a more rational and efficient use of resources, in the medicine of the future technology will play an ever increasingly integral role.

Thus, the International Meeting on “The Network of Large European Hospitals” offers a point of view on the future, on how innovation in technology, clinical practice, and organization improves patient care.

The hospitals of the future belonging to the European network, either newly constructed or modernized, will be increasingly digitized, computerized, and robotically equipped.

During the Meeting at Careggi University Hospital (Florence), international experts will meet to discuss the new therapeutic frontiers of oncological surgery, ophthalmology, urology, reconstructive surgery, anaesthesia and intensive care, organ and tissue transplants. Moreover, during the Meeting new procedures will be disclosed together with innovative perspectives for robotic surgery, radiotherapy, rehabilitation with exoskeletons, therapeutic compound preparations, especially including those regarding cancer therapies.

In the spotlight of the Meeting, the keywords will be not only prevention and therapies, but also prognostication of those diseases that could affect any individual with personalized medicine.

Last but not least, the other topics that will be explored in this three day Meeting will be the new frontiers of bioengineering, nanotechnology, nanomedicine, Big Data analysis methods, and Big Data’s huge unexplored potentiality in the study of diseases and new healthcare scenarios, cognitive computing, e.g. artificial intelligence able to make decisions in both healthcare and organization fields.

In conclusion, at this International Meeting in Florence from October 13th to October 15th 2016 we will have a taste of the future of the worldwide healthcare system.

INNOVATION AND TECHNOLOGY MORNING SESSION

Chairs: Stanislao Rizzo, Andrea Belardinelli

09.00 am Sensors of the future

Alessandro Grattoni,
Chairman of Department of Nanomedicine,
Methodist Research Institute, Houston, USA

09.40 am Visual prosthesis

Stanislao Rizzo, AOUC, Florence, Italy

10.20 am Data Protection in the Cloud

Nathalie Rey, EMEA Trust Manager, Google for Work,
London, United Kingdom

11.00 am Connecting and Analyzing Biomedical Data in Real-Time

Clemens Suter-Crazzolara, SAP, Germany

11.40 am Cognitive computing

Oded Cohn, VP, Director of IBM Research, Haifa, Israel

12.30 pm Lunch

Thursday, October 13th, 2016

INNOVATION AND TECHNOLOGY AFTERNOON SESSION

Chairs: Anna Maria Celesti, Andrea Belardinelli

- 02.00 pm LECTURE
The pioneering phase of the Internet in Italy: issues and challenges
Luciano Lenzini, University of Pisa, Italy
- 02.40 pm Enhancing Surgical Performance through Technology and Design
Paul Millman, VP Product Solutions Intuitive Surgical,
Sunnyvale, USA
- 03.20 pm Healthcare robotics-radiosurgery
Ludovic Peyre, Product manager CyberKnife, Accuray,
Sunnyvale, USA
- 04.00 pm Healthcare robotics - pharmacy
Demis Paolucci, Loccioni, Angeli di Rosora, Italy
- 04.40 pm Implementing Robotic Rehabilitation into Modern Practice
Barry Richards, EMEA Clinical Director, Ekso Bionics
- 05.20 pm Conclusions

Friday, October 14th, 2016

INNOVATION AND CLINICAL PRACTICE MORNING SESSION

Chairs: Raffaele De Gaudio, Marco Carini, Stefano Romagnoli

- 08.20 am New cardiovascular monitors: integrator of whole body function
Didier Payen, University of Paris 7 Denis Diderot,
Paris Cedex, France
- 09.00 am Perioperative Medicine in the Era of Digital Quality Improvement
Maxime Cannesson, UCLA Los Angeles, USA
- 09.40 am Robot-assisted surgery in uro-genital neoplasms
Marco Carini, AOUC, Florence Italy
- 10.10 am Advanced applications of robotics in General Surgery
Andrea Coratti, AOUC, Florence Italy
- 10.45 am Aortic treatment in 21st century
Aaron Fargion, AOUC, Florence Italy
- 11.00 am Educational and training programs in the era of simulation:
the experience at Medical School of Nancy
Laurent Bresler, CHRU de Nancy, Hôpital de Brabois, France
- 11.40 am Technical and technological advances in lung cancer surgery:
towards a more conservative approach
Luca Voltolini, AOUC, Florence Italy
- 12.20 pm Value based lobectomy: quality outcomes, OR efficiency and profitability, and outstanding patient satisfaction
Robert J. Cerfolio,
The University of Alabama Hospital at Birmingham, USA
- 01.00 pm Lunch

Friday, October 14th, 2016

INNOVATION AND CLINICAL PRACTICE AFTERNOON SESSION

Chairs: Marco Innocenti, Adriano Peris

- 02.00 pm Evolving concepts in soft tissue microsurgical reconstruction
Marco Innocenti, AOUC, Florence Italy
- 02.35 pm Innovations in autologous reconstruction of the breast
Jaume Masia, University of Barcelona, Barcelona, Spain
- 03.10 pm Innovation in Plastic Reconstructive Surgery:
from perforator flaps and transplantation towards tissue engineering
Jan Jeroen Vranckx, University of Leuven, Leuven, Belgium
- 03.45 pm Robotic Microinstruments for Reconstructive Surgery
Giuseppe Prisco, Medical Micro Instruments, Pisa, Italy
- 04.00 pm The Evolution and Development of the Moorfields Network of Ophthalmic Services
Declan Flanagan, Moorfields Eye Hospital NHS Foundation
Trust, London, UK
- 04.40 pm Non heart beating donation, controlled and uncontrolled
Francisco Del Rio, Hospital Clinico San Carlos, Madrid, Spain
- 05.20 pm Perspectives in transplantation: the role of the clinical networks
Alessandro Nanni Costa, Centro Nazionale Trapianti, Rome, Italy
- 06.00 pm Conclusions

Saturday, October 15th, 2016

INNOVATION AND ORGANIZATION:
THE IMPACT OF INNOVATION ON HEALTHCARE PLANNING IN LARGE HOSPITALS

Chairs: Monica Calamai, Anna Maria Celesti

09.10 am The Alzira Model. Beyond an integrated care organization
Javier Palau, Hospital Ribera, Valencia, Spain

09.50 am The Humanitas experience in organization
Norberto Silvestri, Humanitas, Milan, Italy

10.30 am The French experience in hospital organization
Patrick Triadou, Université Paris Descartes, Paris, France

11.10 am The Gemelli General Hospital experience in organization
Enrico Zampedi, Policlinico Gemelli, Rome, Italy

11.50 am The Careggi University hospital experience in organization
Monica Calamai, AOUC Florence, Italy

12.30 pm Meeting conclusions
